

Livingston County Industrial Development Agency Mission Statement

The Livingston County Industrial Development Agency (LCIDA) is a public benefit corporation of the State of New York authorized under Section 18A of the General Municipal Law. The LCIDA was created through a home rule request to the New York State Legislature, which was granted as Chapter 132 of the Laws of 1973.

The Mission of the Agency is to create and retain employment opportunities for the residents of Livingston County and generate tax revenues to support government services. This mission is accomplished through the financing, development, sponsorship, acquisition, construction and equipping of certain economic development projects.

Through the fulfillment of the Agency's mission, the Agency expects to deliver employment, health, and general prosperity, economic welfare and needed services for the residents of Livingston County.
